For our readers in the UK who are pensioners, Chapter 1 of the BBC You & Yours programme from 2 December 2010, explains the £25.00/week cold weather payment benefit when the temperature is below 0 degrees Celcius for seven consecutive days and this benefit is different to the winter fuel allowance.

- . Make sure you are getting all the benefits you are entitled to.

Thanks to one of BTM's supporters for bring this advice to our attention.
