

Letter to Member of the House of Lords in Opposition to Marriage (Same-Sex Couple) Bill

Written by J. B. Waddell
Thursday, 30 May 2013 13:41

With the Second Reading of the Marriage (Same-Sex Couple) Bill scheduled to take place in the House of Lords on Monday 3rd June 2013, here is my letter to one of the members that I have corresponded to in the past.

Dear Lord <Name omitted>

I would just like to let you know that I am totally opposed to the introduction of the Same Sex Couples Marriage Bill, which has been rushed through the House of Commons, without a mandate from the people, and with a complete disregard and contempt for democracy and the opposition by the majority of the people in the UK.

I have already written to the leaders of the three main political parties and my local MP, but they all just recite the mantra of "Equality" and "Love", when there is clearly no equality in the bill in principle or concept and the lust not love of GLBTQs will damage society, marriage so that it is unrecognisable and the physical and mental welfare of children caught (not born) in same sex relationships.

I have also written to the Parliamentary Scrutiny Committee <http://www.publications.parliament.uk/pa/cm201213/cmpublic/marriage/memo/m58.htm> exposing further the hypocrisy and shame Parliament have brought on themselves in the way they that they have forced through this major social change for the benefit of those who choose biologically perverse sexual behaviour – even fox hunting was given double the debating time!

Surely the House of Lords will put an end to this madness and rule that it is not the business of the State to redefine marriage to suit the absurd demands for the approbation of GLBTQ people and to progress their ultimate quest to create complete unbounded sexual anarchy and destruction of the family unit of a man and a woman.

The Same Sex Couple Marriage Bill must be rejected as unworkable, unequal, undemocratic and unsuitable for the good of the people of this land.

Letter to Member of the House of Lords in Opposition to Marriage (Same-Sex Couple) Bill

Written by J. B. Waddell
Thursday, 30 May 2013 13:41

Yours sincerely

J B Waddell