

Same Sex Marriage is given Royal Assent

Yesterday, 17 July 2013, the Same Sex Marriage bill which has been euphemistically called Marriage (Same Sex Couples) Bill 2013, received Royal Assent and became law in England and Wales. (BBC News, 17 July 2013)

The determination of MPs and Peers to force this bill through both Houses with an openly declared disregard for a need for a mandate from the people, a true consultation and the following of proper parliamentary process and procedure, for such a radical and catastrophic Act of Parliament, has been jaw droppingly shameful and astonishing.

Watching the debate on the bill in both Houses, even those who opposed the bill were not prepared to condemn homosexuality outright. Repeatedly, praise was given to previous parliaments for: making homosexual behaviour legal, promoted in schools, celebrated in Civil Partnerships and the enforced complicity of recognition for GLBTQs on the whole UK population.

Adult Farce in the Registry Office

It has been documented repeatedly elsewhere, that the introduction of the Same Sex Marriage is nothing to do with equality, but sexual anarchy (rampant and unbounded fornication, promiscuity and perversity) and the dissolution of the true and natural concepts of marriage, sex, family, parenting, generations, etc. If you don't think this is true why do the definition of the words 'husband' and 'wife' now apply to both sexes, amongst many of linguist contortions?

"Will you, Michael, have Andrew to be your husband? Will you love him, comfort and keep him, and forsaking all other remain true to him as long as you both shall live?"

"Will you, Andrew, have Michael to be your husband? Will you love him, comfort and keep him, and forsaking all other remain true to him as long as you both shall live?"

"I now pronounce you husband and husband."

No, this is not an adult comedy show; this is what your MPs and Peers have proudly enforced on all UK citizens led by the standard bearers Cameron, Clegg and Miliband.

It has also been tragic during the last few years seeing so many people who call themselves Christians bowing to political correctness and rebuking true Christians who oppose homosexuality by telling them that they are committing "the sin of homophobia". How corrupt have their minds become that they openly tolerate and defend the sin of homosexuality and its pride, rebellion against God and the natural order of life. Have they not ushered in Same Sex Marriage?

*"Have ye not read, that he which made [them] at the beginning made them male and female, And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh?
Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder."* (Matthew 19:4-6)

The words of Jesus Christ define again in scripture marriage between a man and a woman and the special union of consummation that occurs. No Act of Parliament can change God's law which stands forever. Nor can it change natural law, what we REALLY think, or God's truth.

Battle lines are now drawn

The opportunity is now for true Christians to stand brighter and clearer than ever in this dark world for the word of God and for the testimony of their faith in Jesus Christ as their Saviour and Lord.

Making this stand publically will cost you literally everything, including your life. GLBTQ activists and their government emissaries with their newly defined moral indignation will persecute us with every legal and illegal means. Christians will be positioned as terrorist, subverting the laws of the state, under the heading of "hate crime" or "discrimination" or "creating unrest" or "promoting illegal practises " by preaching the law of God and sin, forgiveness through the work of Jesus Christ, and by standing by the word of God as the truth.

The Church of Sodom

The people of the UK are now forced to bow to the state enforced religion of praise of Sodomy. The Archbishops have surrendered the 'Church of England' to the new 'Church of Sodom'. The validity of the governments open quadruple locks were a political token to phase in Same Sex Marriage across society and then completely into the new Church of Sodom. With the Archbishops openly advancing the Church of Sodom, changing now redundant Canon law will be a formality, and I would not be surprised if draft legislation is being worked on already.

If you are an individual who calls himself a Christian, you must resolve in your heart where you stand. Are you with the Lord or against Him? Do you stand by the word of God or the lies of Satan? Doing nothing is complicity.
